

International Student Exchange Nomination Form

Incoming exchange students should consult with their home institution exchange coordinator. Students may apply to UIC through the exchange program only if their university is a partner institution. For initial consideration, the coordinator must nominate the applying student.

Deadlines for receipt of the nomination form

February 1st for Fall semester [August-December]
June 1st Spring Semester [January-May]
November 1st for Summer Session II [June-August]
for graduate students only

Deadlines for a complete application to UIC

March 1st for Fall semester [August-December]
July 1st Spring Semester [January-May]
December 1st for Summer Session II [June-August]
for graduate students only

On receipt of this form, UIC will confirm an active exchange agreement is in place and there are existing application opportunities based on current exchange balances. The home institution exchange coordinator and the student applicant will then be notified by email of next steps in the application process. Students are encouraged to be nominated early. Deadline exceptions can not be accommodated.

Please note that this nomination form is not an application for university admission. A nomination will not guarantee university admissions.
